

Archives

Bonner Scholars: Click on link below to see article that appeared in The News Record, March 7, 2012.

CISMC NEWS RELEASE 2012

Communities in Schools of Madison County

CISMC News Brief
September 2012
Volume 1 Issue 1

Communities In Schools is the nation's largest dropout prevention organization.
– and the only one proven to both decrease dropout rates and increase on-time graduation.

CIS MADISON is awarded National Accreditation
by the national office of Communities in Schools (CIS)

focus

Thomas Field,
Executive Director of CIS Madison County, meeting with the National Accreditation Team.

6th Grade, 2013—2014 - Madison Middle School

CIS Jump Start Program

Thanks to this program, upcoming 6th graders are able to spend the day exploring Madison Middle School. Here they are taking a break in the Media Center.

Madison Team Success

at Madison High School and Madison Middle School

This program provides tutors, mentors, and support for students needing help academically or with negotiating the complexities of acceptable/productive school behavior.

Beth Herdman,
Site Coordinator,
Madison High School

Annette Riddle,
Site Coordinator,
Madison Middle School

<http://madison.communitiesinschools.org/>

Contact the Executive Director of CIS Madison, Tom Field:
828-649-9276 ext. 248 5738 US Hwy 25/70
tfield@madisonc12.net Marshall, NC 28753

Grad Fest 2012

JumpStart 2012

Christmas Basket Fundraiser 2012

CIS Accreditation 2013

JumpStart 2013

JumpStart 2014

Raffle Winners 2016

Dine Out Flyer 2017

JumpStart 2017

Raffle Winners 2018

From Staff Reports

The News-Record & Sentinel
USA TODAY NETWORK

Winners in a fundraising raffle benefiting a local educational program will enjoy meals at the finest restaurants of Madison County and Weaverville.

Bruce Murray, executive director of Empowering Madison Youth to Succeed, or EMYS, announced the winners of the organization's dine-out raffle. Madison County School Superintendent Will Hoffman drew the winning names.

Donna Postles, who purchased her ticket at the Marshall Handmade Market, won the blue ticket draw. Phyllis Holt, who purchased her ticket at Fench Broad Electric Membership Corporation where she works, won the white ticket draw.

"We are so grateful to everyone who purchased tickets and especially to the generosity of the restaurants that donated gift certificates to make the raffle possible," Murray said.

Twisted Laurel, Blue Mountain Plaza, CA's Diner and Tommy's Family Restaurant in Weaverville; Wagon Wheel, Eas'd Sheep Burrito, Osaka's Japanese, Stackhouse and The Original Papa Nick's in Mars Hill; Bonnie & Clyde's Appalachian Cuisine, Momma's Kitchen, Zuma Coffee, Happy Cinco de Mayo Mexican Restaurant and High Ridge Adventure Outfitting & BBQ in Marshall; and Iron Horse and Mosale Gourmet in Hot Springs, and Spring Creek's Dave's 209 all donated to the annual fundraiser.

The fundraiser helps support the students of Madison County through tutoring and mentoring programs, according to Murray. EMYS, formerly called Communities In Schools of Madison County, provides one-on-one support for students that can make a significant difference in their lives. Murray said 30 percent of the 2018 graduating class of Madison High School were assisted by EMYS programs at some point in their academic careers.

You can help Madison County youth EMYS programs at some point in their academic careers.

You can help Madison County youth

Bruce Murray, executive director of Empowering Madison Youth to Succeed, and Will Hoffman, superintendent of Madison County Schools, selected raffle winners.

COURTESY PHOTO

with your financial support or the donation of your time. More volunteers are needed to help tutor or mentor through EMYS' programs. For more information, contact Bruce Murray, 649-9276 x. 1024, email bmurray@madisonki2.net, or visit the emysnc.org.

Fundraiser Feb 2020

New Bd Members May 2020