“I am new to the organization, but the reason I was interested in this program is the shared desire to keep our students in school to graduate. The opportunities that this organization offers to tutor and counsel students through the end of their school years to guarantee a greater success after high school is something worthy of my time and energy.

I look forward to a time without COVID when I can really see this program in action.”

Printpack Inc. | 475 Printpack Lane | Marshall, NC 28753

Gerrie DeLoach is the manager of Human Resources Operations at Printpack, Inc. in Marshall. DeLoach moved to the area in 2010 when Printpack Medical acquired the Madison County business. She has been with Printpack for 18 years in July working in multiple locations.

“I believe in investing in the young people of our community,” explained DeLoach. “It’s important to provide them opportunities to excel using their unique talents and abilities.”

DeLoach’s husband, Rodney, owns Madison Auto Care in Marshall. They have 2 children, Jazmin, age 21, and Nicolas, who is 15. The DeLoachs live in Mars Hill and enjoy taking the boat to the lake.
